

LISTENER GUIDE

Episode 3: Hidden Treasures

In this episode, Tyler Lance Walker Gill helps us sing one of the oldest sing along songs, "Froggie Went A Courtin", Jimmie Rodgers style.

The Community Challenge is all about your hidden treasures!

Our featured organization is the (Un)Known Project:

www.unknownprojectky.com

Do you know about places, stories, names, artwork, or experiences related to the Black experience in Louisville and across Kentucky? If so, share your hidden treasures with the (Un)Known Project using the website above.

Can You Hear Me? Community Challenge

Song: Froggie Went A Courtin'

This episode is about digging beneath the surface for hidden historical treasures. Now we'd like to hear about your hidden treasures!

Who would you nominate to the Kentucky Music Hall of Fame? Perhaps a little-known talent from your hometown? Or a family member who could really sing?

---

Think about an unknown, interesting or fun fact about you and share it with us. You can remain anonymous if you'd like!

---

---

Don't forget to share!

This show is called Can You Hear Me? for a reason. We need to hear from YOU!

Call 502-286-3616 and leave a message responding to the challenge.

Or visit canyouhearmelouisville.org/contact and click the button to record a voice message.

Your voice might be featured on a future episode!

EXPLORE MORE!

Go to the Episode 3 page at canyouhearmelouisville.org for links to VISIT the Kentucky Music Heritage Foundation Facebook page, WATCH a video series about "Exploring the African American Influence of Kentucky Music," and LISTEN to an interview with WKYU's Lamont Jack Pearley with event organizers Dave Howard and Michael Jones...

